Description:

A truly stunning Villa in the most prestigious location on the costa del sol. The urbanisation of Sierra Blanca is located in north Marbella, just below the iconic backdrop of "La concha mountain", and only 3 minutes drive into town. These magnificent homes consist of the most outstanding quality, and contemporary design features. The only way to fully appreciate the range of features and magnificent design of space, finishing and technical implementation is to view at the earliest possibility. Even in this market it is very rare to present such an outstanding discount on a property of this magnitude.
